

Jayne Thomas Grassroots Volunteer Recognition Award

History

Named in honor of Jayne Thomas, a preeminent Community Action leader in Virginia, this award was established in 1988 to recognize and honor volunteers who are devoted to changing people's lives and who have made a significant and outstanding contribution toward accomplishing the Promise of Community Action.

TO NOMINATE SUCH A PERSON, SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING BY JUNE 6, 2018:

- Official Jayne Thomas Nomination Form

Provided on the following page

- Nomination Narrative

that chronicles the demonstrated contributions of your nominated local volunteer to include their length of service, scope of service and degree of leadership within your CAA and/or the community they serve. Please note advocacy efforts to change people's lives and outstanding contributions toward giving a voice to the poor.

- Letter of Support from your CAA executive director with clear, concise, and descriptive examples of how the nominated volunteer through activities and accomplishments has met the award criteria noted above. Letters from other supporters may also be included.

- Two-Minute Video (If Selected)

If your nominated volunteer is selected, you will need to provide a two-minute video featuring your nominee.

If your state or agency recognizes volunteers during National Community Action Month, or at any time during the year, please submit their names as nominees. The Partnership will provide hotel accommodations and convention registration for each award recipient.
