Challenge:

Neighborhoods that suffer the effects of poverty endure a depletion of spirit.

East Decatur was one such community.
de·ple·tion · (dĭ-plē′shən) n.

1. The act or process of depleting.

2. The state of being depleted; exhaustion.

3. The use or consumption of a resource, especially a natural resource, faster than it is replenished.

spirit · (spĭr′ĭt) n.

4.a. The part of a human associated with the mind, will, and feelings;

b. The essential nature of a person or group.
East Decatur Block Makeover Area

1602  1616  1618  1620  1630

OLIVE STREET

1611  1613  1615  1625  1627  1629

Homeowner  Rental &/or Vacant  Staging Area

Financial Excellence · Exceptional Customer Service · Accountability · Compassion

Door-to-Door Engagement

Financial Excellence · Exceptional Customer Service · Accountability · Compassion
5 Days

Community Engagement Initiative

35+ Corporate Partners

Financial Excellence · Exceptional Customer Service · Accountability · Compassion
Coalition of residents, community partners and volunteers
Engaging Neighbors

Financial Excellence · Exceptional Customer Service · Accountability · Compassion

Neighbors Helping Neighbors

Financial Excellence · Exceptional Customer Service · Accountability · Compassion
Building a stronger community

Collective Efforts
Connections With Residents

Financial Excellence · Exceptional Customer Service · Accountability · Compassion

Before

Financial Excellence · Exceptional Customer Service · Accountability · Compassion
During

Financial Excellence · Exceptional Customer Service · Accountability · Compassion

1 day later

Financial Excellence · Exceptional Customer Service · Accountability · Compassion
The single greatest community service project in the Partnership’s 50-year history.