ORCCA's South Coast Food Share Overview:

Oregon Coast Community Action (OR-CCA), is a private non-profit organization-501(c)(3) created in 1965 as the Community Action Committee, Inc in 1965 to serve the Southern Oregon Coast. The current name was adopted in 2006. ORCCA provides cost effective joint administration, leadership, and support for children's programs and emergency services on the Southern Oregon Coast. Oregon Coast Community Action provides services and resources; helping people in need, fostering self-sufficiency, and empowering individuals and families. South Coast Food Share (SCFS) has been focused on providing hunger relief since 1965. SCFS serves as Regional Food Bank in Coos and Curry counties and is part of the Oregon Food Bank Network; A group of partners, programs and agencies committed to the belief that no one should be hungry. If you're interested in working for ORCCA, job applications can be found at www.orcca.us

Overview of Key Duties and Responsibilities:

Oregon Coast Community Action's mission is positive change for thriving communities by providing services and resources; helping people in need, fostering self-sufficiency, and empowering individuals and families.
