Land Acknowledgement

Every community owes its existence and vitality to generations from around the world who contributed their hopes, dreams, and energy to making the history that led to this moment. Some were brought here against their will, some were drawn to leave their distant homes in hope of a better life, and some have lived on this land for more generations than can be counted.

Land Acknowledgement

- Identify the traditional inhabitants of the lands you're on. Click here: https://native-land.ca/ and enter your address in the search box on the left of the screen
- Articulate a statement of acknowledgment. "I would like to acknowledge that this event is being held on the traditional lands of the _____ People, and pay my respect to elders both past and present, who have stewarded this land throughout the generations."
  - Please take a moment to consider the many legacies of violence, displacement, migration, and settlement that bring us together here today.
- Deliver your statement in the chat including the land/people relevant to the land that you are occupying during this session. Learn more by taking time to learn about the Indigenous history of the land you live on. The Parnership team will share the link to the US Department of Arts and Culture in the chat now. Visit https://usdac.us/nativeland to get started.
