Land Acknowledgement

Every community owes its existence and vitality to generations from around the world who contributed their hopes, dreams, and energy to making the history that led to this moment. Some were brought here against their will, some were drawn to leave their distant homes in hope of a better life, and some have lived on this land for more generations than can be counted.

Land Acknowledgement

https://native-land.ca/

- This meeting is being held on the traditional lands of the _____ People, and I pay my respect to elders both past and present, who have stewarded this land throughout the generations."
  - Please take a moment to consider the many legacies of violence, displacement, migration, and settlement that bring us together here today.
- Deliver your statement in the chat including the land/people relevant to the land that you are occupying during this session.
- Learn more by taking time to learn about the Indigenous history of the land you live on. The Partnership team will share the link to the US Department of Arts and Culture in the chat now. Visit https://usdac.us/nativeland to get started.

Human Service Value Curve

www.aphsa.org

- Regulations set the foundation for innovation; they are not the goal
- Collaboration with participants, across internal programs, and with external partners
- Integrated services put client at the center
- Generative Mindset can be a decolonizing mindset

Crisis-to-Thrive Scale

- Prevention
- Shelter
- Transitional Housing / Rapid Re-Housing
- Permanent Supportive Housing
- Rental Assistance
- Homebuyer Assistance

DEDI Journey

- Diversity: Count the People
- Inclusion: The People Count
- Decolonization: Multiple Ways of Knowing
- Equity: Outcomes Count; Systems Change

Tips to get Started

- Spend 10 minutes (per day or per week) learning (Facebook, Tribal Newsletter, etc)
- Listen to a podcast
- Listen to your indigenous board, staff, clients
